

Table of Contents

Prefazione	»	VII
1 The international financial system and its evolution	»	9
1.1 Financial globalization: scenario elements	»	9
1.1.1 Financial flows and the geography of power	»	12
1.2 The key decision supporting financial globalization	»	15
1.2.1 Bretton Woods: new monetary system and the dominance of the USA	»	15
1.2.2 The eurodollar market and the private money supply	»	16
1.2.3 The demise of the Bretton Woods system and petrodollar recycling	»	19
1.2.4 Stagflation and influence of the US monetary policies	»	20
1.3 The systemic nature of the financial crises	»	22
1.3.1 Capital flows in the decades of the 1970s-1980s	»	24
1.3.2 Capital flows in the 1990s	»	27
1.3.3 The global financial crisis	»	29
2 The evolution of global finance architecture: the institutional framework	»	37
2.1 The Basel system	»	38
2.2 The Washington system	»	42
2.3 Power relationships in the evolution of the finance system	»	43
2.4 Frontier finance: across polarizations and alternatives	»	46
3 Finance capitalism	»	55
3.1 The structure of finance capitalism	»	57
3.2 The relationship between economy and politics	»	59
3.3 The neoliberal ideology	»	60
3.4 On the economic crisis	»	62
3.5 The economic system's financialization process	»	65

4 Growing inequalities	»	71
4.1 Finance and income	»	71
4.2 Finance is a factor that generates inequality	»	73
4.3 Monetary policies	»	79
5 Financial centers	»	83
5.1 Agglomeration Processes of Financial Centers	»	83
5.2 Types of Financial Centers	»	85
5.3 The Financial Centers of London and New York	»	87
5.4 The Financial Offshore Centers	»	90
5.5 The geography of Offshore Financial Centers	»	93
5.6 Europe: Between Onshore and Offshore	»	97
5.7 The financial centers of China	»	100
5.8 India: between finance and the bank-centric system	»	101
5.8.1 Mumbai: India's financial center	»	105
6 Geopolitical dynamics	»	107
6.1 Geography of power	»	107
6.2 Financial and geo-political instability	»	111
6.2.1 The USA, the West and China	»	112
6.2.2 Africa and the Middle East: Strategic Interests and Disinformation	»	115
7 China: Development model and Global Financing	»	121
7.1 The Development Model	»	121
7.2 Territorial Planning and Case Studies	»	126
7.3 China in Global Finance by Ann Lee	»	131
The Authors	»	143